

Rhode Island Saltwater Anglers Association Member News

by Lynn Medeiros

The purpose of this column is to pass along information and milestones within the membership. Birthdays, anniversaries, events or get-well wishes are all in order. We also let members know of the passing of other members.

GET WELL

We were sorry to learn that long-time member PAUL KAVANAGH has been suffering with a recurring foot problem that has kept him from attending monthly meetings. Your friends miss you Paul. We wish you a speedy recovery.

GISELE & RICHARD GOLEMESKI

travelled to Tennessee last month to attend the wedding of their niece, Brittany Marie Quiles. So why not make a vacation of it? Giselle and Rich went to Nashville, saw the Hermitage (Pres. Andrew Jackson's home), Country Music Hall of Fame, had lunch and watched the Patriot's game at the famous FGL House Restaurant, heard music at the Tequila Cowboy and Wildhorse Saloon. Sounds like a fun trip!

CONGRATULATIONS!

to Members
SHEILA and BOB LEE

were married on September 24 on the beach in South Kingstown.

AND JUST AFTER THE WEDDING.....

SHEILA saw comments about false albacore which were not good to eat. Not true, said Sheila. When properly prepared, false albacore is just as good as tuna, cooked in a pan and seared in butter.

Husband BOB said, "These fish are falsely labeled as not good to eat. So was lobster in the past."

A PERFECT WEEKEND

Member SUSAN LEMA wrote about the October 21-22 warm spell weekend. "The weekend's fishing had everything: a spectacular sunrise, a few cooperative albies, dolphins under the boat, a seal, seabass, and even a huge leatherback turtle that surfaced for a breath off the bow."
