TOM SMOTHERMAN

displays a 9 pound doormat fluke that he landed on August 4 while fishing aboard the Seven B's. They were approximately 3 miles south of Beavertail in 65 feet of water, and Tom was using a large Spro jig with a chartreuse colored Gulp and a squid strip.

DAVID HOWE

displays a false albacore he caught in late September while fishing in the bay. He was casting epoxy jigs with fellow member Mike Sheridan.

6 & 8 Year Old Junior Members

NATHEN & AIDEN BELTRAMI

with a pair of nice scup they caught while fishing north of the Jamestown bridge on their grandpa Brian Beltrami's boat in August.

MICHAEL CLINI

displays a 9.6 lb fluke caught on June 7 while fishing with Rich Hittinger and Bob Murray on Skipjack off Block Island.

ROBERT ROSEMAN

takes a selfie of himself with a 26" bluefish taken on a rubber shad in the Quonnie breachway on September 2. He noted it was fund catching big bluefish in the incoming rushing breachway current.

GISELE GOLEMBESKI

with a 7.3 lb tautog that she landed on October 22 while fishing with husband Rich west of Point Judith.
