Julio Silva

About Julio:

Julio Silva is an all species, all methods angler. During the hours that he should be sleeping, he fishes for anything that swims via shore, boat, kayak, and skishing.

He has been blogging for 11 years. His blog overflows with do-it-yourself projects ranging from a multi-functional fishing bucket to a custom Gloucester Light Dory that he built from marine plywood and blueprints.

Julio has been a RISAA member for the past 10 years. During that time he has contributed many articles for our news magazine.

He was the President of the Plum Island Surfcasters for 4 years.

Julio has been delivering fishy seminars for 9 years and has been a speaker at our New England Saltwater Fishing Show.

Julio has rods like his wife has shoes. Fishing is indeed his mistress. During his seminars, he answers all questions without secrecy.

About the seminar:

Stupid surfcasting is as effective as screen windows on a submarine. If you want to catch BIG fish or a lot a fish from shore, then learn smart surfcasting.

In this seminar you will learn:

- How to fish the entire water column: from spooks to jigs and everything in between.
- How to select the proper gear for what you are casting and when and where you should be casting it.
- How to store and manage your gear without breaking the bank.
- How to manage your time on and off the water.
- How to create your own spots database.

He will share lessons learned from years of experience on the surf so can safely take your surfcasting to the next level.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

Due to COVID restrictions we will not be able to conduct an in-person meeting.

THIS WILL BE A VIRTUAL/ONLINE SEMINAR

An e-mail with registration info will be sent to all members prior to the seminar.
