

Rhode Island Saltwater Anglers Association Member News

by Lynn Medeiros

The purpose of this column is to pass along information and milestones within the membership. Birthdays, anniversaries, events or get-well wishes are all in order. We also let members know of the passing of other members.

CONDOLENCES

It is with deepest sympathy that we report the loss of member
Richard J. Mandeville

71, of Greenville, RI on January 17. He was the beloved husband of Anne M. (Broderick) Mandeville.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children Jessica Mandeville-Loyd of Bedford, MA, Seth Mandeville of Lincoln, RI and Matthew Mandeville of Stowe, MA.

He was a biology teacher at Lincoln High School for 33 years before retiring in 1999.

Dick was a member of the R.I. Saltwater Anglers Association and the Narragansett Surfcasters.

He was known by fellow anglers as "Fishdoc" and was a craftsman who made custom fishing lures. Often he would attend RISAA monthly meetings and set up a table selling his Fishdoc Custom Lures.

CONDOLENCES

We offer our deepest sympathies to member CAPTAIN SANDY KANE who lost his wife Donna (Linton) Kane, age 67, of Jamestown, RI on December 29. She was an avid tennis player and loved the water, especially clamming and boating. They have two children, Braden Kane of Nashville, TN and Andrea St. Ives of Braintree, MA

RECOVERING

Member DAVID POLLACK underwent cardiac surgery last month to replace a heart valve. As part of a special study, it was done via a new arthroscopic procedure at R.I. Hospital. Instead of days recovering in the hospital he was sent home the next day, with instructions not to lift anything heavy for ten days and no driving for a week.

CONDOLENCES

It is with deepest sympathy that we report the loss of member
Robert A. Brodeur

85, of North Kingstown, RI on January 5. He was the beloved husband of the late Irma L. (Caione) Brodeur.

He was a US Air Force Veteran who served during the Korean War in Alaska and Minnesota where he attained the rank of Staff Sergeant.

Bob was an outdoorsman who enjoyed skiing winters as well as being an active fisherman, and boater. He really enjoyed fixing and restoring old boats. He also was a scuba diver, seasonal lobsterman, and bowler. He loved spending time with his family most of all.

He was a 20-year member of the R.I. Saltwater Anglers Association and a long time member of the East Bay Anglers.

CONDOLENCES

It is with deepest sympathy that we report the loss of member

William R. Teixeira

73, of Fall River, MA on November 25. He was the husband of Janice (Hubert) Teixara.

Billy was born in Lisbon, Portugal and lived in Fall River most of his life. He is survived by his son William Teixeira III and daughter Amy Padilla, both of Fall River.

Billy enjoyed working with his hands and fishing. He was a member of the R.I. Saltwater Anglers Association.

GET WELL

Member DANIEL PATRICK called to say he was sorry that he missed the past few meetings and would be unable to attend our Anniversary Banquet. He was scheduled to have a back operation on January 16 which will lay him up for a while, but hopefully will give him the freedom to be pain free going forward.
