RHODE ISLAND COD FISHING

While Atlantic cod has mostly disappeared from George's Bank, there is a small, but good cod fishery within a one hour boat ride from Pt Judith.

Cap. Rich Hittinger and Bob Murray

Rich and Bob are both RISAA Board Members, but are also hard-core fishermen and are usually on the water over 70 days a year.

They have taken part in the local cod fishery with success and are willing to share basic information with members who want to get started fishing for cod in local waters.

They will discuss tips on tackle, jigs and baits and how you can find the locations and bottom structure that can hold cod.
